

EXIT FROM BREXIT

A photograph of a crowd of people at a political demonstration. Many individuals are holding signs that read "EXIT from BREXIT". Some signs also feature the Liberal Democrats logo and the website "www.LibDems.org.uk/join". A man in a dark suit and white shirt is visible in the foreground, looking down. The background shows a city street with buildings and other people.

Liberal Democrats are calling for an EU referendum on the final Brexit deal in December 2018. There will be a 12-week campaign, starting in September, to give the UK the option to accept a deal or stay in the EU. The UK is a democratic country and the process can be stopped at any time should a majority decide that it would be best for the UK to remain in the EU.

Please take one or all of the following actions:

- 1 Stick this poster in your window.
- 2 Write to your MP (unless it is Caroline Lucas, who shares the Liberal Democrat position on Brexit) and ask him or her to demand a “Vote on the Facts” with 16- and 17-year-olds, EU citizens in the UK and British citizens in the EU all eligible to vote.
- 3 Vote for the Liberal Democrats if an election should be called.

You can contact your MP, wherever you live, by visiting www.writetothem.com and typing in your postcode.

In Hove, write to Peter Kyle, 99 Church Road, Hove BN3 2BA

In Kemptown, write to Lloyd Russell-Moyle, 11 Hunns Mere Way, Woodingdean BN2 6AH

“If a democracy cannot change its mind, it ceases to be a democracy.”

David Davis, Brexit Secretary

“Given the enormous importance of so many issues that would be decided in an Article 50 renegotiation ... it seems right to give people a vote on it.”

Dominic Cummings, Vote Leave Campaign Director

“The decision to leave the EU can be reversed, if we so choose.”

Lord Kerr, Author of Article 50

“If Britain changes its mind, it would find an open door.”

Guy Verhofstadt, EU Parliament Brexit representative
